E. B. TAYLOR DIES AT HIS HOME

End Comes Early this Morning After Short Illness

PRACTICING ATTORNEY

Was One of Master Commissioners in Chancery and Commissioner of Accounts in Corporation Court.

Eugene Taylor, a well known attorney, forty-nine years old, died shortly before 4 o'cloc kthis morning at his residence, 120 South Fairfax street. His death followed a comparatively brief illness. The deceased had, however, been in poor health for some time past.

Mr. Taylor was unmarried and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Kate U. Taylor, together with a sister, Mrs. Virgina A. Smoot.

Mr. Taylor was born in this city and graduated in law at the University of Virginia when a young man and took up the practice in ths city.

The deceased was one of the master commissioners in chancery in the corporation court and also commissioner of accounts for that court. He was a member of the bar association for this city and also for this circuit. He also was prominently identified with the Bible Class of St. Paul's P. E. Church.

Mr. Taylor enjoyed a wide circle of friends who will regret to hear of his death.

The funeral of Mr. Taylor will take place at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon from St. Paul's P. E. Church and services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. P P. Phillips, rector.

WAR SECRET KILLS

Keeping News of Brother's Supposed Death From Aged Parents Proved Too Great Strain

Philadelphia, April 1.—Weakened by the strain of keeping the supposed death of her brother from her aged parents, Rose Toof, 20, of this city died of pneumonia in the Jewish Hospital.

The girl was admitted into the hospital March 18. Physicians say at the time of her admittance she was already seriously ill with the disease and had probably been so for several days.

During the influenza epidemic last October, Miss Toof was attacked by the malady. She kept constantly calling for her brother, Samuel Toof, 24, who went abroad with Company B the Pioneer Infantry, last year.

Upon her recovery she wrote to the War Department and was informed that her brother had died of wounds.

Fearing that the news might be fatal to her aged parents the girl did not tell them. The effort to keep silence wore down her vifality.

Three weeks ago, letters bearing dates after the reported death of her brother were received from him. Other letters received by friends showed that Toof is with the Army of Occupation at Nuendorf, Germany.

ASSAIL DRY OFFICERS

Charge Prohibition Officers With Discourtisies in Searching Baggage

Richmond, Va., April 1.—Governor Westmoreland Davis has received a communication from John Barten Payne, counsel for the United States Railroad Administration, which contained a letter froms Mayor Parker Quincy Moore, of Wilmington, N. C.

Mayor Moore, according to the communication from Payne, protests against the unscrupulous methods uesd by prohibition officers in search of baggage of passenger trains for whisky. He charged that he had received complaints from women traveling in Pullman berths that they had been awakened by the officers who demanded to know if they had any whisky.

The mayor characterized the agents as being "thugs in the guise of officers," and further stated that after the baggage had been opened such articles that struck the fancy of the "searchers" were taken.

Governor Davis has taken the matter up with Prohibition Commissioner J. Sidney Peters to instruct his men to use discretion in dealing with women, stating at the same time that he is desirious of having the law enforced, but warning Peters to see that his men do not exceed their authority.

MORE TROUBLE IN GERMANY

General Strike Declared Today Beginning of a New Campaign

SOVIETS' DEMANDS

All Troops Must Disarm—Arming of Proletariat—Freedom of All Political Prisoners—Close Relations With Bolsheviki.

Berlin, April 1.—The general strike declared in the Rhineland by the Soviets for today is regarded as the possible beginning of a new campaign to overthrow the present government Its full extent will not be certain before it actually gets under way.

Among the demands being made by the Soviets are.

Disarmament of all troops.

Arming of the proletariat.

Freedom for all political prisoners.

Immediate and close relations with the Bolsheviki in Hungary and Russia.

Workmen in Berlin are irate over the government's arrest of Ernest Daumig leader of the city's Soviets. He is the most important radical leader next to George Ledebour, and was largely responsible for the organization which overthrew the Kaiser. He is charged with instigating Spartacan uprisings in January.

The Soviets claim his arrest was the result of the government's fear of opposition.

Copenhagen, April 1.—A general strike was scheduled in Essen for today. The workers demand recognition of the Soviet system, a six-hour day, and a 25 per cent increase in wages.

W. H. OEHLERT TAKES STAND

Prisoner Alleges Shooting Of Linwood Kidwell Was Accidental.

PISTOL SHOWN IN COURT AS EXHIBIT

Number Of Witnesses Put On Stand For The Defense Yesterday Afternoon---Final Arguments In Case Being Held This Afternoon.

Before a crowded courtroom filled with interested spectators final arguments are being made this afternoon in the case of Willam H. Oehlert, chargd with shooting and killing Linwood Kidwell.

The opening argument on behalf of the state was begun shortly before 4 o'clock by Commonwealth's Attorney Howard W. Smith. He will be followed by Attorney Edmund Burke, representing the accused and the closing argument will be made by Mr. Smith.

The instructions were read the jury by Judge Chichester at 3:30 o'clock.

It is expected that the case will go to the jury about 6 o'clock this evening.

After the close yesterday of the Gazette's report of the trial in the Corporation Court of William H. Oehlert on the charge of shooting and killing Linwood Kidwell in the yardmaster's office of the Southern Railway last November, Charles T. Goods, chief of police, took the stand. He told of arresting Oehlert at the latter's home; found him sitting on his bed; Oehlert, at first, attempted to establish an alibi by protesting he had not been out of the house since six o'clock in the evening; used threatening language toward witness and Officer Kerns, who accompanied the chief; Oehlert extinguished the light in the room and attempted to reach a bureau, but was prevented; resisted on the way to the station house and attempted to get out of the motorcycle; later the prisoner was placed in a passing automobile.

Officer Kerns subsequently took the stand. His testimony was substantially that given by the chief. He, too, said Oehlert had used threatening language to the chief and himself, the yard master of the Southern Railway.

Herberth Griffith, was the next witness. He had been called for the defense. The object was to show that railroad men generally carried pistols for their defense in the discharge of their duty. Witness always supposed Oehlert and Kidwell were friendly—disposed towards each other.

Peyton Ballenger was the next witness for the defense. He is an employe of the railroad, being night clerk in the yard. He said he is acquainted with Oehlert and knew Kidwell. The relations between the two were as brothers. Had there been unpleasantness between them witness would have known it, he said.

Harry Lipscomb, an employe of the railroad company, was next called. His testimony varied but little from that of the preceding witness.

Joseph S. West took the stand and he testified that, so far as he could judge, friendly relations existed between Oehlert and Kidwell.

Arthur Welch was the next witness. He supposed the prisoner and Kidwell had been personal friends.

Geo. H. Waters, yard conductor of the Southern Railway, testified to apparent friendly relations between the two men.

Oehlert then took the stand for the purpose of identifying a pistol which he claimed was defective and which, he said, was accidentally discharged on the night Kidwell was killed. He told of it having been discharged accidentally on another occasion.

Robert Pitts testified to friendly relations existing between the prisoner and Kidwell. Identified the pistol as the weapon which was accidentally discharged on another occasion.

Arthur Welch was again called to the stand. He identified the pistol as the weapon brought to his house boat by the prisoner and which was

MANY KILLED IN CRASH

Scaffold Collapses at Launching on Delaware—3 Bodies Recovered

Bristol, Pa., April 1.—From ten to forty persons were killed or drowned late yesterday when a temporary scaffolding, extending around the stern of a boat on the ways at the Merchant Shipyard, at Harriman, near here, collapsed while nearly 150 persons were standing on it to view the launching of the freighter Waukau. At a late hour last night only three bodies had been recovered. Twenty-two injured persons were taken to the Harriman Hospital.

Thousands had assembled to see the launching and witnesses of the accident say the scaffolding seemed to turn over, precipitating its occupants into 25 feet of water. The accident happened four minutes before the launching was scheduled to take place.

An instant after the scaffolding fell, the key piece of the Waukau, at which the workmen had been sawing, parted and the big hull slid down the ways, the suction, it is feared, drawing some of the victims down to the bottom of the river.

BOLSHEVISM INDORSED

Cleveland Socialists Declare For Proletariat Dictatorship And Capital's Overthrow

Cleveland, April 1.—Cleveland's Socialist party today was lined up with the Russian Bolsheviki and German Spartacans. At a meeting here yesterday it adopted a program providing for:

Establishment of a prolietariat dictatorship and overthrow of capitalism.

Organization of workmen and soldiers' councils to take over the Government.

Direct mass action instead of present political methods.

Election of Socialists for the purpose of "obstruction only."

Propaganda for revolutionary industrial unionism.

A new international Socialist party with the Bolsheviki, the Spartacans and other Left wing groups as members.

The meeting was secret. Six hundred members with paid up membership cards were admitted. They included girls and women with children in their arms.

BETRAYED BY CLEAN HANDS

Archduke Joseph Francis and Ex-Millionaire Arrested at Frontier

Geneva, April 1.—Archduke Joseph Francis and Julius Ommeich, a former millionaire, dressed as peasants, were arrested when trying to cross the Hungarian frontier into Germany. They were betrayed by their hands, which were out of keeping with the costumes they wore. Their fingernails were manicured and their hands generally clean, showing no sign of hard work.

The Socialist commandant, Herr Keszthelg, sent the arrested men to Budapest.

Bela Kun, the Foreign Minister ordered both imprisoned.

U-BOATS ON THE WAY

Four Undersea Craft Convoyed By U. S. Tender Leave Harwich.

Harwich, England, April 1.—Four German submarines, convoyed by the United States submarine tender Bushnell, left here yesterday for the United States.

Many more than the requiret number of officers are making the trans-Atlantic trip on the captured craft.

CAUSES UNEASINESS

Washington Officials Believe French Premier Will Yield to The Allies in End.

The unyielding attitude of Premier Clemenceau in the matter of reparation claims, as reflected in yesterday's reports from Paris, occasioned considerable uneasiness in official circles here.

While it is confidently expected that the "Tiger," in the last analysis, will be compelled to come around to the view of President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George and Orlando, it is felt that a distinctly unfavorable impression is being caused throughout the world by the extent to which the French leader is delaying the peace treaty. It is felt that the Bolshevik agitators in every country of Europe, where the virus of Bolshevism has begun to poison public opinion, are reaping benefits from the situation that may have serious permanent effects on the political situation on the continent.

It is not believed for a moment that France will permit the United States to withdraw from the Peace Conference rather than yield her excessive demands for indemnity. Before that, it is believed, the French people would insist on a change of their Government. Even old Clemenceau, the feeling is, could not risk his political fortunes in such a contingency.

PREDICTS NATION STRIKE

Debs Says Workers Will Quit, When He Enters Penitentiary, May 1

Akron, Ohio, April 1, Eugene V. Debs, when shown the decision of the Supreme Court, in which the court refused to rehear the case as the result of which he must serve ten years in the penitentiary, said:

"That means that by May 1, the day on which I begin my sentence, the general strike will have begun.

"I have letters from every labor organization in the United States and from organizations all over the United States assuring me that on the day I enter the penitentiary they will quit work and never return until I am released.

"The day on which I am going to the penitentiary as the Supreme Court has ruled is the first of May and it must not be forgotten that that day is the labor day of the world. On that day, I have been assured that if the Supreme Court had not ruled by that time, more than 5,000 labor meetings would have been held asking for my release."

WHOLESALE EXCITEMENT

One Hundred and Fifty Persons Pay Penalty for Looting.

Budapest, April 1.—One hundred and fifty persons were executed by the new Communist regime in Budapest for looting during the political turmoil here last week.

IN MEMORIAM

LUCAS—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband JOHN LUCAS, who departed this life months ago today. April 1, 1919.

You have left me forever, dear Johnny
Who loved you better than all;
I lived for you, dear while you were here,
You were my life and all.
I will dream of your face I loved,
Your eyes I'll be longing to see;
I will never forget you, dear,
You were all in this world to me.

By his loving wife, Minnie Lucas. 78-1t.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving remembrance of our dear little darling ARCHIE E. SCOTT who entered into the heaven of rest one month ago today.

It was sad to have our darling leave us
It grieved our hearts and always will.
But yet he's gone to join the angels
All is well and peace be still.

His devoted mother, Mrs. Archie E. Scott. 78-1t

OPPOSE MOONEY STRIKE

Walkout on April 4, As Labor Demonstration, is Fought by Miners

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—Declaring the "Mooney convention" in Chicago last January was not authorized to call a general strike to obtain clemency for Thomas J. Mooney, the United Mine Workers of America have decided not to participate in the strike called for April 4. This was decided at a meeting of the international executive board of the miners, it was learned yesterday.

Holding that Mooney had been "done an injustice" in his trial on a charge of bombing a preparedness parade at San Francisco, the executive board said that the convention called by the International Workers' Defense League in Chicago did not act on authorization of the American Federation of Labor.

The board refused to subscribe to the $1,000,000 fund to prosecute the legal battles of Mooney as called for by the Chicago convention. It instructed the miner delegation to the next convention of the American Federation of Labor to advocate a committee to fight Mooney's battles, however.

FAREWELL PARTY TO M. T. C. NO. 804

Enjoyable Affair Staged Last Night at W. C. C. S. C., in Honor of Men

125 MEMBERS PRESENT

Occasioned Enlivened by Attendance of Seventy-Five Women of W. C. C. S Club—Musical Program Given.

That the war has brought together officers and men in closer relation was evidenced last night when the 804th Motor Truck Company from Camp Humphreys gave a farewell dance and party at the War Camp Community Service Hall, where the entire company from officers to non-coms and privates commingled to gether in delightful enjoyment. Altogether there were fully one hundred and twenty-five men and about seventy-five girls, members of the W. C. C. S., dancing club present

Arrangements for the party were made by Lieut. O. L. Lull, in command of the company and every detail was admirably carried out Among the commissoned officers in attendance were Capt. L. R. Brown Chas. Oram, and Lieuts, Harold Butt Herbert Taylor, Chas. Davidson ng, Shierhouse, Chapman and McNutt. The music was d by D. McWillams, dis- sailor, and was a five piece composed of men of the During the evening Nelson t of the Q. M. C., who pos- a fine baryitone voice, sang a of selections which were very enjoyed. Refreshments were in the capable hands of Lipps Bros., and consisted of neopolitan ice cream, fine assorted cakes and a grape-juice and lemon punch. Maurice Loeb, local photographer, was engaged to take a flight picture of the party during intermission and serving of refreshments in the club room on lower floor of the building.

Those men who were present last night are all that are left in Camp Humphreys of the M. T. C. Regiment, and these are being discharged as rapidly as possible. Many of these men have been in the army since last May. From information that can be gleaned, Camp Humphreys will soon be demobilized down to two thousand men, but a sum of seven millions of dollars was recently appropriated to erect permanent structures, and men are enlisting at the rate of about fifteen a day for a year's service and schooling in engineering, and a few months time will probably see recruits at Humphreys numbering from five to ten thousand.

WAR BRIDES IN TEARS

Five of 69 Who Arrived on Transport Will be Deported.

Five war romances were shattered yesterday with the arrival of the Cunard Line steamship Aquitania at quarantine New York from Brest. Sixty-nine brides of American soldiers and sailors were forced to run the gauntlet of immigration officials, and five were denied admittance to the land of their husbands. They were sent to Ellis Island and will be deported. Physical defects were said to be the cause of the trouble.

SHIPS THAT NEVER RETURN

The disappearance of the United States collier Cyclops over a year ago has never been explained, and probably never will be until that day when the sea gives up its dead.

During the past three score years several other ships have vanished after having started on voyages to or from America. The disappearance of the passenger steamer City of Boston in 1868 is one of the ocean mysteries. The fate of the steamship Arctic and the President long before have never been known. The non-arrival at New York of the steamer Naronic a quarter of a century ago has never been explained, and the disappearance of the British training ship Atlanta, which left Bermuda in 1879 with five hundred young naval officers is also wrapped in mystery.

The Baltimore Sun in speaking of the Cyclops, the last to vanish, says "the mystery of the Cyclops becomes still more mysterious now that the German Admiralty declares that it has no record of the sinking of the collier by a submarine, and that there were no U-boats in West Indian waters a little more than a year ago when the Cyclops disappeared. No trace of the missing vessel was ever found, not one of the 23[illegible] officers and men and 57 passengers survived to tell the tale of the disaster. For weeks and weeks we continued to hope that she might be discovered somewhere, or that at least a few of those on board might have been saved. But the last remaining possibility of getting even a ray of light on the subject from human witnesses has been eliminated by the answer of the German Admiralty to our inquiries.

Evidently the disaster that overtook her was so sudden and complete as to leave no opportunity for any of those on board to escape. The Cyclops appears to have been swallowed up by the sea in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, as quickly as some ocean monster might swallow the smallest of fish.

"Yet there is a naval lesson of importance in the loss of the Cyclops which may possibly be plucked out of the heart of its mystery. Naval science by the process of exclusion may be able to get very near the cause of the calamity. What was there about the construction of the Cyclops or its cargo that would lend themselves to so unusual an occurrence? Our naval experts owe it to the country and the service to discover, if it be possible, the cause or causes that probably contributed to this result. The same thing may happen again, if we do not learn what happened in this case. It may have been something very simple or something very extraordinary, but for the protection of others we should not give up the search for a clue. All the clues may not have been swallowed up by the sea."

"BE CONTENT WITH YOUR WAGES."

The words in the headline of this article were uttred by John the Baptist, according to the Holy One of Israel, the greatest man ever born of women. They were addressed to Roman soldiers who had come to the river Jordan to be baptised of John.

The Author of the Christian religion while tabernacling with men said he had many things to say to his disciples, but they could not bear them then. His doctrines to the many, are as difficult to assimilate now as then. The great masses of the world are far from being content with their wages, and strikes are becoming more numerous all the time.

The spirit of discontent spreads more rapidly than that of humility and patience. We are told to let patience have her perfect work. but instead of men adopting and following this precept the seas and "the waves are roaring" throughout the world. Every man seems to have a sore place. The times are perilous, and while some "men's hearts are failing them in fear of what is coming upon the earth," others are rendered desperate and defiant.

"Laborers who could neither read nor write came to the pay window and I paid them from $35 to $50 a week, while my own salary was $28," said William E. Nett, college graduate and cashier for the Knickerbocker Ice Company, in New York when he was arraigned charged with stealing $15,000.

I was holding a responsible position involving the handling of millions of dollars a year," said Nett "I had a wife and daughter. I got tired of seeing illiterate laborers getting nearly twice as much as I was paid."

SEES NEW WAR.

Philip Snowden, Socialist, Declares Chaos Due in Whole of Europe

London, April 1.—Philip Snowden, Socialist and noted labor leader, foresees growing chaos and a new and more dreadful Armageddon in Europe as a result of allied policy at the Peace Conference.

"No government in Germany or Austria or Hungary would survive six hours after the acceptance of the terms now being formulated at Paris.

"Bolshevism spreads even toward Italy, due to the failure of the allied politicians to grasp the full significance of the world movement.

"The next two years will see the blackest chaos in all Europe; the final Armageddon has not been fought yet; it will be more dreadful than the last because it will start with starvation everywhere.

"The great popular armies in Russia, the central empires, Italy, and possibly France, are united for the final destruction of the capitalistic system, and for the establishment finally of the reign of the common people."

HUNGER KILLS BOLSHEVISM

Cabinet Minister in Lenine Regime Admits End is Near

Stockholm, April 1.—A frank avowed that the position of the Bolshevik Government had become absolutely intolerable was made at the recent international Bolshevik conference by M. Lunacharsky, Minister of Education in the Soviet Government according to a Petrograd dispatch. The Minister is said to have confessed that the "Socialist conscience of the very circle on which Bolshevism is based in shaken at present."

Lunacharsky also admitted that the worst enemy of Bolshevism was the Allied economic blockade, and he even went so far as to predict the end of the Bolshevik regime if the blockade continued. He said that, owing to physical privations from lack of bread, fuel and raw materials, it was natural that wrath should be provoked against the Government and that it should also be accused of inefficiency.

AGAINST PROHIBITION

Meeting of 10,000 St. Louis Citizens Adopts Resolution Protesting Action.

St. Louis, April 1.—Declaring prohibition smacks of the "autocratic powers of the despotic Turk and the late Russian Czar," resolutions protesting against national prohibition effective July 1, were unanimously adopted by more than 10,000 persons at a mass-meeting here Sunday. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Central Trades and Labor Union.

The sovereignty of the people was nullified by the action of the Missouri Legislature in ratifying the constitutional amendment, the resolution declares, pointing out that prohibition was defeated at the last State election by 74,000 votes.

discharged accidentally.

John T. Evans, employed as car inspector by the railway company, took the stand and stated that pleasant relations existed between the prisoner and Kidwell, so far as he observed.

Zeddie Kidwell, employed in the shops of the Southern Railway, followed. Witness could not tell the nature of relatives existing between the prisoner and Kidwell. The latter was witness's nephew.

Oehlert was again placed on the stand. He said he was born in Alexandria 34 years ago; is a married man; was not on duty at the railroad yard at the time of the shooting; had been to Washington that day with two men; he and his companions entered his (Oehlert's) house, upon their return; had loaned a lamp to the man who owned the automobile; prisoner held the lamp, while the machine was proceeding to the railroad yard; his pistol dropped from his pocket into a puddle of water; he went to the yard to make arrangements to go on a hunting trip with a party; he entertained good feeling toward all in the office; fired the pistol outside to try the barrel; re-entered the office and began to reload the pistol; bottom trigger held back; slipped from under his thumb and was discharged; Midkiff attempted to take pistol from him; did not know for a time Kidwell was shot; followed Kidwell outside and told him he would not have hurt him for anything on earth; had ever been friendly with Kidwell; never had a cross word with him; went home immediately after the shooting; took a drink of whisky and went to bed; officers pulled the cover from the bed and took him out; started towards the bureau to secure some wearing apparel, but was pulled away by the officers; the chief was choking him so severely that he could barely breathe; after he was placed in the motorcycle in a scuffle the latter fell out of the vehicle; had no intention of shooting in the office; what he said concerning "shooting up the office" was this—"How is this for shooting up the yard?" uttered after he discharged the pistol outside.

On cross-examination Oehlert said he had been to Baltimore on the day of the shooting for the purpose of purchasing a saw to be operated by a gasoline engine. Had not been at work for ten days; had been employed in repairing his house and fence during that time; denied he offered a bottle of whisky to Mrs. Kidwells baby, flourishing a pistol menacingly on that occasion. The accused was subjected to a close cross-examination by the Commonwealth's Attorney.

At 8:40 court adjourned until 10:30 this morning.

Court reconvened at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Oehlert again took the stand, and retold his story of the shooting. He denied that he pointed or aimed the pistol at any one; was looking at the weapon at the time it was discharged.

Upon being cross-examined he took the weapon and showed what he regarded as its defect.

Chester Coons subsequently took the stand. Resides in Richmond; is acquainted with Oehlert; met prisoner on the day preceding the night of the shooting; came with him and J. E. Burke from Washington; party were in an automobile; light on the car was defective; Burke desired to visit the railroad yard office; Oehlert obtained a lantern and held it while on the way to the office in the auto.

Cross-examined witness said he saw Oehlert reach for something before he left his home; knew he had a pistol, however; saw him handling the weapon later.

Ollie Simpson was the next witness. Is a brakeman of the Southern Railway; the prisoner and Kidwell appeared to be on friendly terms.

Mrs. Oehlert, wife of the prisoner, then took the stand. Kidwell was a frequent visitor to her home; friendship existed between her husband and Kidwell.

Mr. Burke, counsel for the accused, had asked witness what statement her husband made upon his return on the night of the shooting, but told her not to answer the question as the Commonwealth's Attorney had objected. He referred to this alleged exclamation, "Lucy, I have accidentally shot my best friend, Linwood Kidwell."

This was overruled by the court.

Witness resumed, describing her husband's movements upon his return; also his conduct upon returning from Baltimore; saw her husband and Burke enter the automobile; Coons did not remain; was to see her husband later; was home when Chief Goods and Officer Kerns arrived; they pulled her husband out of bed; dragged him down the steps minus his coat and hat; witness asked that her husband be allowed to secure his coat and hat, but permission was refused; identified the torn shirt;

Edward Sullivan was the next witness. Is an embalmer at Wheatley's undertaking establishment; described the course of the bullet which entered Kidwell's left side and lodged lower in the right side.

Mrs. Kidwell, widow of Linwood Kidwell, subsequently took the stand. Her husband and Oehlert were not friends, that is they did not go together. Prisoner had offered whisky to her and her baby upon one occasion at a relative's house; when she protested Oehlert produced a pistol and flourished it menacingly. Witness denied that she told the prisoner she wanted her husband to be given day work; she would have dealt with Mr. Griffith, the general yard master, had she so desired.

Upon being cross-examined she denied that she visited the jail at any time in her life; never saw Oehlert in jail; denied saying in the witness room that she could take a pistol and shoot the prisoner; said, however, that some one should.

Chief Goods was recalled. Witness said Oehlert was sitting on the side of the bed when he entered the room; did not pull him out of bed; prisoner refused to put on his hat and coat; attempted to reach the bureau; witness was determined to keep him away; did not refuse to comply with Mrs. Oehlert's request to allow him to don his coat and hat; did not treat him with unnecessary severity; prisoner deliberately tore his shirt himself; prisoner resisted the officers; had to use force with him. Mr. Burke subjected witness to a close cross-examination.

Frederick Ayers was the next witness. Is a lock and gunsmith, examined the pistol alleged to have been used on the occasion; was not in good condition, but could be used; was corroded; would naturally be so if not used since last November.

Officer Kerns subsequently took the stand. His testimony was in the main as that given by Chief Goods.

Chief Goods was again recalled. Returned to Oehlert's home after the shooting to seek the gun, but failed to find it.

Roberta Kidwell, mother of Linwood Kidwell, took the stand; witness never saw her son with Oehlert.

Mrs. Oehlert was recalled. Witness reiterated her statements concerning the arrest of her husband in controversion of the testimony of Chief Goods and Officer Kerns; she found the pistol in her husband's coat pocket next morning; pistol was not in the bureau drawer in the bed room, as had been supposed.

Miss Nettie Garner then took the stand. She testified concerning Mrs. Kidwell's alleged utterances while in the jury room.

The court subsequently adjourned until 2 o'clock.

Upon reconvening the proposed instructions of the prosecution and defense to the jury were submitted and the court had prepared the instructions the Commonwealth's Attorney began his argument.

DO NOT BE TROUBLED BY BIG SHOE BILLS

Fifteen months of service from a pair of Neolin Soles is claimed by F. T. Evans of Seattle, Washington. "Then I had them half-soled and they are still good," says Mr. Evans.

Big shoe bills do not trouble the man who gets wear like this from his shoes. If you are interested in cutting down your shoe expense, be sure that the shoes you buy have Neolin Soles.

You can get them on new shoes in many styles for men, women, and children; and they are available everywhere for re-soling, too.

Neolin Soles are made by Science to give long wear, and to be comfortable and waterproof. They are manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also manufacture Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Judicious Advertising

The question of whether or not advertising pays has been debated time and again—in every corner of the world—and always there has been the same answer

IT DOES PAY

The Gazette goes into practically every home in Alexandria and your advertising is read every evening by more than 3,000 prospective shoppers. And these readers are the ones the local merchant must depend upon for his support.

Some merchants persist in the alibi that too many people shop out of town. This fact shows that the average person does read advertising and that if local merchants took more pains in putting their merchandise before the public there would be less out-of-town shopping.

Get Out Of The Rut

Give Alexandria people a chance to appreciate your efforts in conducting a business for their benefit

IF YOU HAVE SOMETHING TO SELL advertise it. We guarantee "Service."

WANT GOVERNMENT TO OWN MT. VERNON

Washington, D. C., April 1.—The Federation of Citzens' Associations is to be asked to take up the fight for a government owned Mt. Vernon.

The Mid-City Citizens' Association last night discussed the present system of control of Mt. Vernon and decided to present the matter to the federation for consideration. The aid of every citizens' organization in Washington will be enlisted in the fight to have Uncle Sam take over control of George Washington's home.

Milton B. Zeiler, who opened the discussion of Washington's home, at the meeting of the association at 1009 Seventh street northwest, in advocating this project, said:

"Not only should Mt. Vernon be purchased by the government, but the Government should open it as a free public institution. Transportation by rail or boat should be furnished free to the public. Let's cut out the talking and start some action."

JEWS WILL STAY IN U. S., SAYS STRAUS

London, April 1.—Oscar Straus, of New York, in an interview here, declared that he did not look for any great emigration of jews to Palestines. Such a move may be made, he said, "long after I am dead."

"If there is to be any marked racial movement of the Jews back to the Holy Land," Mr. Straus said, "It will start in those countries of Europe where there used to be and still are restrictions against people of my race.

"I am not a Zionist," he added. "Perhaps that is because I am too practical. But I have a strong spiritual sympathy with Zionism as an Idea."

POSTMASTERS OF 70 CITIES CONFER

Postmasters from seventy of the leading cities of the country, together with representatives of a number of prominent busness houses began a three days' conference today with Postoffice Department officials.

Postmaster General Burleson addressed the conference this morning pointing out that it was called for the the purpose of discussing subjects relating to the needs of the postal service. The discussion is expected to take a wide range during the several meetings that will be held.

"PEYOTE," INDIAN DRINK; BOOZE OR PRISON, IT SURE HAS SOME KICK

Bemidji, Minn., April 1.—"Peyote"—no relation to coyote—is causing State and Government officials in the Cass Lake Indian district a great deal of trouble and worry.

The reservation is bone dry. Peyote is a liquor officially listed as poisonous. Indian Agents C. E. Benson and W. J. Johnson say it is the "hottest, wildest booze that ever gurgled down the throat of a human being." It has been barred from the mails.

Despite secrecy in distilling the liquor, Government agents are said to have discovered that a Mexican plant is used in the manufacture. The plant is believed to be brewed with grains ordinarily used in making moonshine whisky.

LUDENDORFF OUT AGAINST "PEACE OF DESTRUCTION"

Berlin, April 1.—Gen. Ludendorff writing to the Militarisches Korrespondent, says.

"Do not bend your will before the enemy, who wants to impose a peace deviating from President Wilson's fourteen points. Do not accept a peace of destruction."

Speaking at Weimar, War Minister Noske denied that the Germans are conducting an offensive in the Baltic region.

SUIT AGAINST BURLESON RAT

Topeka, Kan., April 1.—Fred S. Jackson, attorney for the public utilities commission, stated today that an injunction suit will be filed before night n the Shawnee District Court against the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies to prevent the raise in rates announced by Postmaster General Burleson, April 1.

FORD TO GIVE JOBS TO 1,000 CRIPPLED YANKS

Detroit, April 1.—One thousand crippled soldiers will be given employment by Henry Ford in his plants in Highland Park and Dearborn, he has announced.

SHIPWORKERS GO BACK TO FARMS

War workers are going back to the soil.

Carpenters, ship caulkers, and riveters, no longer able to earn $8 to $10 daily, are returning to the farms on which they mysteriously discovered how to build ships while driving plows and weeding onions, the Agriculture Department has found.

"This is especially true in the Pacific and Western States," said E. V. Wilcox, of the Government's Farm Management Bureau.

"Farms will not be short of hired hands this year," Wilcox says. "Reports from Washington and Idaho show that farmers are able to select from many seeking farm jobs.

"Married men are sure of jobs. Farmers are willing to pay them $60 monthly, throwing in a house and garden and often milk and cream for family use.

"Wages probably will not be pressed down much this year by the increasing number of available farm workers. Day rates are expected to range from $2 to $5 and sometimes $6. But next year, when the labor situation returns to normal, with approximately 13,000,000 workers on the land, wages are due to drop, experts think.

"Farmers of the wheat belt are organizing again this year to employ thousands of volunteer workers from cities in harvest time."

FRANCE TO TRAIN JAPANESE TO FLY

Tokyo, April 1.—Seventeen officers and twenty men of the French air forces, headed by Colonel Faure, have arrived in Japan to supervise the reorganization of the Japanese air service. The mission comes in fulfillment of a promise made by the French government to the Japanese war ministry during the war that such assistance would be given as soon as possible after the cessation of hostilities.

The French government is sending 100 airplanes to Japan to be used in the reorganization work. It is expected that the visiting aviators will be here three months. They have been given a very hearty reception by Japanese officials, and French flags are crossed with Rising Suns throughout Tokyo in their honor.

The officers are all veterans of the air, and each wears several decorations and ribbons indicating his service for France and for the allies. One of the members of the mission, Lieut. Georges Richardson, fought with the United States marines last year, having been assigned to duty as a liaison officer. Commandant Lefevre, who downed a Zeppelin on its return from a bombing expedition to London is a member. Some of the officers have seen service on all battle fronts.

FOUR POUND WATCH IS WORN BY GIANT

Cincinnati, April 1.—While the latest thing in watches is the thin, round, or octagon gold timepiece, Capt. Martin van Buren Bates, who died recently at his home in Seville, Ohio, wore a watch that weighed four pounds. It was set with diamonds, and a set of chimes sounded the hours as the watch rested in his vest pocket. It was a gift from Queen Victoria.

It may be explained that the man who wore the four-pound watch was a famous giant. He stood seven feet four inches and weighed 380 pounds. He was born in eastern Kentucky and served as a soldier in the command of Gen. John Morgan, the Confederate cavalry leader.

"UNWILLING KISS" PUZZLE TO COURT

Wilmington, Del., April 1.—Draper Bell, a married man, was before Judge Churchman in city court on a charge of assault and battery on Mrs. Bessie Haley, a neighbor, who testified that Bell, while visiting at her home, "smothered her with kisses."

Bell said the woman returned kiss for kiss and the woman informed Judge Churchman that she gave Bell an "unwilling kiss." The case was continued for one week, the court being unable to decide what kind of a kiss that could be.

LIVE WIRE TAKES FINGERS

Boy is Critically Burned When Strand Drops Into Street

Berwick, Pa., April 1.—Struck by a falling live wire on Front street Friday night, Max, 15-year-old son of Fred Long, was horribly burned on the left arm and three fingers were burned from his hand. He was rendered unconscious and it was several minutes before witnesses released him from the wire. He is in the Berwick Hospital in a critical condition.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Brooding for four years over the death of his wife, John R. Taylor, 75, Sandy Hook, shot himself to death while kneeling over his wife's grave in Philadelphia.

In case of the refusal of the Germans to sign the peace terms as drawn up in Paris, Marshal Foch has orders to advance the army of the Rhine. This will mean that peace will be dictated in Berlin.

John Rabu, grocer, was shot and killed in Detroit last night in his shop by two Sicilians. One suspect is under arrest. Police say the killing is due to the Sicilian feud which has claimed nine lives here in two months.

Japanese interests are making determined efforts to exploit the Philippine Islands, according to semi-official information from Manila which reached Washington yesterday. During the last few months the influx of Japanese immigrants into Mindanao and other agricultural districts has assumed enormous proportions, these authoritative reports declare.

With union carpenters in the District of Columbia planning to vote this week for an increase of $1 a day for eight hours' labor beginning June 1, and the hod carriers' union already agreed to demand a like increase to take effect June 15, a serious handicap in the building and construction program initiated by the Builders' and Manufacturers' Exchange is predicted.

Police of Ann Arbor, Mich., say Robert Warner, 16, soldier, confessed to having killed Miss Irma Perkins, school teacher, 19, because she spurned his love. Warner, according to the police, said the night before the shooting the girl kissed him, and then laughingly confessed to merely pretending that she loved him. Warner said he then planned to shoot her.

The general strike has extended all over Austria, according to reports from Vienna. Negotiations between strike delegates and the government have been unsuccessful. In spite of Chancellor Renner's speech, attempting to calm the strikers, there is considerable agitation. The promises of the entente commission that food importations soon would be increased has favorably impressed the strikers toward the entente allies.

As the Peace Conference yesterday entered its third week since President Wilson's return, practically nothing has been accomplished in the last fortnight, aside from agreement on military and naval terms of the treaty, disposed of in the first few days. Last week was virtually a dead loss, as far as accomplishment of a peace settlement was concerned. The questions of reparations and boundaries were still far from a decision.

By refusing Eugene V. Debs, Socialist, a rehearing, his conviction under the espionage act was affirmed by the Supreme Court yesterday, and all hope of freedom through the courts was abruptly ended. Several weeks ago the court affirmed Debs conviction and sentence of ten years in the penitentiary for utterances at a speech at Canton, Ohio. Debs must now serve his sentence unless freed by executive clemency.

Alfred "Jack" Bridgers, grocer and Jeff Snuggs were killed yesterday morning when Bridgers found the latter in his store at Raleigh, N. C. Bridgers was shot through the head and Snuggs in the right breast. Snuggs was the 16 year old son of a well known Raleigh contractor and builder. Bridgers had been missing goods for some time, and spent Sunday night watching in his store.

Hope grew in official circles in Berlin yesterday that the Danzig question would be settled without a break with the allies. The newspapers approve the proposal for further negotiations with the allies regarding their demand that Polish troops be permitted to land at Danzig. Marshal Foch is said to have extended the invitation for a plenipotentiary to meet him at Spa to discuss the matter.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, sailed from France yesterday on the steamship Rotterdam, according to an announcement made at the federation's headquarters here. He is expected to arrive in New York within ten days. Mr. Gompers has been in Paris for several months as chairman of the commission on international labor legislaton, which is acting in an advisory capacity to the Peace Conference. Labor leaders in Washington are preparing a public celebration and reception for him on his return.

LEMBERG IS SHELLED

Scores of Civilians Are Killed and Hundreds of Others Are Wounded

Paris, April 1.—Lemberg was heavily shelled by the Ukrainians last week, according to a dispatch from Warsaw. Scores of civilians were killed and hundreds were wounded. St. George's Cathedral and the archbishop's palace were badly damaged.

After a violent battle along the Mitau-Tukkum Railway, Lettish forces defeated the Bolshevists and occupied the towns of Kammerin and Kalnzem. A dispatch from Libau says Kalnzem is about twenty miles southwest of Riga.

CUT THIS OUT

Special Notice: Dr. Frederick Jacobson says that phosphates are just as essential to any woman who tires easily, is nervous or irritated, worn out or looks haggard and pale, to make a strong, robust, vigorous, healthy body, as they are to make corn, wheat or any vegetable plant grow strong and healthy. The luck of phosphates is the cause of all enemic conditions and the administration of 5-grain Argo-Phosphate Tablets will increase the strength and endurance 500 per cent in a few weeks time in many instances. Dispensed by Richard Gibson and The Rexall Store.

AN ANTI-TOBACCO CRUSADE

A Nation-Wide Campaign Against Smoking Said to be Plan

The anti-tobacco crusade which is now stretching out across the country is to be followed, checked up and actively combated at every point. This announcement was made yesterday at the headquarters of the Association opposed to National Prohibition, 10 West Forty-fourth street.

"We have had our lesson in the case of the Anti-Saloon League," said James A. Seavey, organizer of the Association here, "and this time we do not propose to be caught napping. The Anti-Saloon forces would never, I feel convinced, have been able to compel a prohibition amendment to the Constitution of the United States if people had really been awake to the full scope of their plans; if people had taken the trouble to inform themselves a sto what they were really up to and how far they intended to go. We know now, however, what these factions are capable of, and we do not purpose to let them get another start."

For some time, Mr. Seavey said, the Association he represents has been aware of the plans of the anti-tobacco forces.

"We are now arranging," he went on, "to check up on the speakers they are going to send out. We shall not force things, but we shall keep right on their trail. Wherever they send a speaker one night, we shall send a speaker the next night. These people will soon discover that they are not going to have the walkover they had with prohibition."

In the discussions of the anti-tobacco crusade which sprang up throughout the city yesterday it was frequently suggested that the Anti-Saloon League was backing the new movement. This, however, was denied by William H. Anderson, superintendent of the League—N. Y. Tribune.

BOLSHEVIKI THE NUT

Poles, Czechs and Roumanians Can Furnish Fighting Men For New Front.

Paris, April 1.—The peace conference now is confronted with this dilemma: "It must either negotiate with the Bolsheviki or constitute a definite front, with trenches and barbed wire and all the other grim indispensables of real warfare, from the Black Sea to the Baltic.

Opponents of negotiation with, and recognition of the Bolsheviki declare that to get together with the Reds would be a sign of weakness and fear, that cowardice does not assure peace, and that it would mean throwing the conservative elements of Russia into the arms of Germany, which would mean another war with Russia and Germany combined against the entente.

Opponents of the second alternative say it means no immediate war; that the soldiers are tired and will not fight the Reds; that the taxpayers will not appropriate money; that the fighting period is over, that some agreement must be reached sometime, and that the war weary world demands peace forthwith so business may be resumed.

It is no longer a secret that Premier Lloyd-George favors the first scheme, while the French military leaders favor the second. As usual, it is President Wilson who must be the eventual "umpire."

The French militarists assert that not a single soldier of the western allies is needed for the new front that the Poles, Czechs and Roumanians will furnish the fighting men while the western allies would furnish the high command, which means, of course, Marshal Foch. Uncle Sam is expected to pay the money.

It is a serious question.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION
Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's ardent opponent, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.
No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.
If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.
Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 30c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Dr. Frederick Jacobson says, 75 per cent of women need Phosphates to give them Strong, Healthy, rounded figure and to avoid Nervous break down. Thousands of women grow strong in Nature's way.

"Consider the Lilies of the Field, How They Grow."

The life of the lily is but a few weeks or months. The life of woman is "three score years and ten." But to live one's life in its fullness, women like the lily, must be nourished by those same vital elements which nature provides for nourishing every living thing; and these include the valuable phosphates so often lacking in the usual food we eat today. Argo-Phosphate is rich in these wonderful elements. It contains them in concentrated tablet form which is easy to take and quickly assimilated and absorbed into the system, and from youth to old age, builds and rebuilds body and brain in beautiful harmony with Nature's perfect plan. "That's why" Argo-Phosphate makes good solid flesh and muscles.

SPECIAL NOTICE: Argo-Phosphate contains the Natural phosphates which thousands of physicians are prescribing daily to build up thin, pale, colorless women to give them rosy cheeks, red lips, and a beautiful complexion. Many cases have been reported where women have increased their weight from 15 to 25 pounds with a few weeks treatment, and any woman who desires a well rounded and developed form, should secure from her druggist, this new drug which is inexpensive and is dispensed by Richard Gibson and The Rexall tore, with or without a doctor's prescription. HUMAN BONES UNDER CHURCH

Three Physicians Contend That They Are Those of a Woman.

Traverse City, Mich, April 1,—Three physicians called as witnesses in the examination of Mrs. Stanislaus Lypschinski, charged with the murder of Sister Mary John, of the Polish convent at Isadora, eleven years ago, testified at Saturday's hearing that bones found beneath the Isadora church were those of a woman. They also said the skull had been fractured by a blow severe enough to cause death.

The hearing, which is being conducted at Leland, was adjourned yesterday until April 10.

WORLD'S TOYMAKER

Shutting off of German Supply Gave Opportunity to the Workers in Japan

Four years ago the export of Japanese toys was limited to a few varieties, such as dolls, bamboo models and the like. A great change has taken place. Last year the total value of toys exported from Japan amounted to $4,200,000, and in 1918 will exceed $5,000,000. Thus the "land of dolls and flowers," as Japan has been so charmingly called, has been transformed into a country creating playthings of every description for the children of foreign lands, as well as for its own.

Until the shutting of the German supply the toymakers of Nippon never attempted seriously to enter foreign markets.

In addition to common toys of earthenware, wood and cotton, the Japanese now fashion them from rubber, mental and celluloid. They are especially apt in mechanical toys.

Japan is not likely to have any serious rivals. The toy trade has been created for Japan by the war, but it will not be destroyed by cessation of the war, as material and labor are much cheaper in Japan than in any western country. Most wooden toys in Japan are manufactured by hand in the mountain regions of the country, where wood is plentiful and cheap. Individuals or families make them in their houses for the dealers.

BOUND TO COLLAPSE

Charles E. Hughes is Not Afraid of The Reds.

New York, April 1.—Russia, the home of Bolshevism, soon will kill Bolshevism by proving its economic fallacy, Charles E. Hughes predicted in an address at the Lotos Club here Saturday night.

Speaking at a dinner in honor of Gov. Alfred E. Smith, of New York, at which Charles S. Whitman, another former Governor, joined with him in a tribute to the recently installed State executive, Mr. Hughes said:

"I do not share the fear of some people regarding Bolshevism. We will have a serious period in the future, but in that system of government failure is inherent because its economic fallacy is going to be demonstrated. We are going to have a practical demonstration of its futility and the hope of the world to the resistance of Bolshevism lies in Russia, where I am sure the whole scheme will collapse.

"We cannot have production go on under that system. We cannot have rubles printed much longer on the Czar's old printing presses. The attempt to enthrone those who are called workers regardless of the necessities of the others in the community will fail."

ROCKET SHOOTS 200 MILES

Invention Prepared When Armistice Was Signed Has Seventy-Mile Altitude Range.

Worchester, Mass., April 1.—Dr. Robert H. Goddard, professor of physics at Clark College, acting under the patronage of the United States War Department, the Smithsonian institution, Clark University and Worcester Polytechnic Institution, has invented a new rocket that is reported to be a terrible engine of war, with an altitude range of seventy miles straight up in the air and a distance range of at least 200 miles.

The rocket has been developed in a special laboratory at Worcester Tech and the signing of the armistice prevented its being put to actual use in warfare against the Germans.

The Goddard rocket is propelled by a perfected gas engine installed in the lower part of the shell, the explosions that generate the power coming from cartridges that are fed into the chamber by a clock like time dvice.

The rocket does not require a cannon to start it on its flight, the journey begining from any point where a man can get. The weapon feature of the rocket is in the head, where a chamber is fitted to contain either high explosives or gas.

PRINCE OBJECTS TO TERM

Son of Former Kaiser Also Denies He Incited the War.

Copenhagen, April 1,—The former crown prince, interviewed by a correspondent of the Berlingske Tidende, admitted the possibility of his being tried by an international court, but declared he did not believe he would be executed. He stoutly maintained that he is not an idiot. He frankly admitted his unppoularity.

"People say I incited war, but Clemenceau has done so all his life," Freidrich Wilhelm was quoted as saying. "I was of the opinion Germany ought to be prepared, but I did not desire to cause war.

"I do not ask people to consider me especially intelligent, but I am no idiot or degenerate, as English and American papers say I am.

"I knew Germany is the most hated nation in the world. Why? Because the Reichstag never voted anything for propaganda until too late. When the war began we commenced propaganda but, alas, what propaganda!"

The correspondent said the former crown prince is writing a book on the war.

CHURCHES IN FIGHT

Bishop Greer Says Object is Formation of International Church

New York, April 1.—A league of churches for the protection of the world's faith, to combat Bolshevism and to combine the 41,000,000 church members of the United States into a brotherhood for inspired public service is the object of a campaign being started today.

Back of the movement are a number of eminent divines, especially of the Episcopalian faith. As a move toward church unity, Bishop David H. Greer, of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York, yesterday declared that he would invite a Catholic priest to conduct services during the Holy Week at the Church of St. John the Divine.

"Our aim is an international Church," Bishop Greer said. "There are obstacles. Prejudices, custom and tradition stand in the way. But I believe it will come in time."

TOLEDO REDS IN RIOT

5,000 Storm Memorial Hall When Debs Meeting is Prevented.

Toledo, Ohio, April 1.—Refused admission by city officials to Memorial Hall, a city building, where Eugene V. Debs was scheduled to speak yesterday afternoon, 5,000 persons stormed the place, broke windows and doors and then paraded the streets, crying "To hell with the Mayor."

All the time Debs was in bed in a Cleveland hotel, to ill to appear in public.

A substitute speaker for Debs appeared about 3.30 o'clock, but when he attempted to make an address was chased away by policemen.

More than 75 men were arrested, including Thomas Devine, Socialist member of City Council. Charges of inciting to riot were placed against them, but after 300 policemen had succeeded in breaking up the mob the prisoners were all released without bail.

Announcement that Debs would not be permitted to speak was made late Saturday night, after the Socialists here had prepared to handle an overflow crowd. The announcement appeared in the morning papers and was the first notice the Socialists had that their meeting could not be held.

When the hour for Debs to speak arrived there were at least 6,000 men and women congregated about the William McKinley Monument in Court House Park, across the street from Memorial Hall.

A man mounted the base of the monument. We'll use Memorial Hall if we have to wade through blood to do it!" he shouted, a policeman grabbed him and he was thrown into a patrol wagon. The man who next essayed to speak was also arrested.

As the crewd sensed what was occurring, the radicals began to hoot and boo the officers. Clubs were drawn and the crowd was started moving. Then came the parade through the streets, and cries of "Down with the Mayor!" "Hang him!" "To hell with the police!" and others of a similar nature.

It was after 5 o'clock before the police were able to disperse the crowd. Fist fights by the dozen occurred on street corners. Hotel lobbies were invaded by the malcontents. Street cars were held up and threats of serious outbreaks were to be heard on every hand.

Mayor Cornell S. Schreiber, who issued the order preventing the Debs meeting, in a statement said that here after no meeting would be permitted anywhere in the city where it is suspected a man of radical tendencies would speak.

PEACE AND WAR

Movements of Bolshevism—Germany May Keep Danzig

Paris April 1.—Peace and war still hang in the balance. Naturally the people who have just defeated the world's greatest militarism are not prone to recommend arms against whatever ails the world.

News from Budapest is conflicting. Some reports picture Bolshevism going through the regular stages in Russian style, while others indicate pacific intentions on the part of the Hungarian Soviet government, including such an attitude toward the Rumanians.

Opponents of Bolshevism expound on the imperialist character of the new doctrine and declare that unless the allies fight the radicals they will be attacked. Others say it is as useless as establishing a military barrage against measles. Nevertheless, the French Socialist press reports the shipping of large quantities of artillery toward Rumania, with re-enforcements for Odessa.

The truth is that unless the Bolsheviks attack the allies there will be no general mobilization against them.

Warsaw, April 1.—There is gravest apprehension here as the result of news that a German force is operating in Lithuania in conjunction with the allied bombardment of the Bolshevik coast defenses.

It is feared here that this means the allies will allow Germany to keep Danzig, allowing her to link up with Russia.

FEARS EXECUTION

Ex-Crown Prince William Says He Foresaw Possibility of Trial

Copenhagen, April 1.—Ex-Crown Prince Frederick William, of Prussia, foresaw the possibility of his trial before an international court, he declared in an interview published in the Berlinske Tiden.

"It is not impossible that I will be executed," he is quoted as saying.

The ex-crown prince is writing a book on the war.

SEARCH FOR BOOZE

Credentials of Physician and Undertaker Disregarded by Federal Officers Seeking Liquor

Richmond, April 1.—Despite the fact that the coffin bore the certificates of both a physician and undertaker, Federal officers in their search for contraband liquor at Roanoke Monday night disregarded these credentials, pried open the casket, and found therein the body of Robert E. Chapman, member of a prominent Virginia family, which was being carried from Baltimore to his home at Norton, Va., for burial. Information of the affair did not reach Richmond until Saturday afternoon.

The warrant to search the coffin was obtained by the Federal agents when they were informed that whisky was to be shipped through Roanoke concealed in that unusual way. When the train bringing the body of Mr. Chapman reached Roanoke Monday night at 9:50 o'clock, Officer Stultz, who was in charge of the men conducting the raid, did not immediately open the coffin. It was accompanied by two relatives, who left the station for several hours as the train from Roanoke to Norton was not scheduled to leave until 3:55 o'clock Tuesday morning. When they returned they found that the casket had been opened in their absence.

Deputy Collector C. Wallace Coleman and United States Commissioner W. S. Engleshy have refused to make any statement about the matter. Neither denied that officers have no right to open a coffin properly tagged with the certificates of the doctor who attended the deceased and the undertaker who prepared the body for shipment. The case has attracted wide notice in the Western part of the State.

Robert E. Chapman was the son of the late Professor and Mrs. C. Y. Chapman, of Norton, Va. He was a salesman for firearms company. One brother now serving in France and five sisters survive.

JAPS GIVEN CONCESSIONS

To Exploit Agricultural Lands in Lower California

Mexico City, April 1.—That Japanese corporations have been granted concessions to exploit agricultural lands in Lower California was the statement made late Saturday by Gen. Amado Aguirre, Undersecretary of Development and Agriculture.

The affirmation was made, however, that the concessions were fully authorized by the provisions of the Mexican Constitutions regarding the area and position of the territory in relation to the ocean shore and the frontier line.

There was nothing in the concessions, it was asserted by the Undersecretary, that might possibly lead to difficulties as far as the Monroe Doctrine was concerned.

RECORDS OF FAIRFAX SOLDIERS

Fairfax, Va., April 1.—The County Defense League has completed plans for obtaining the war record of every man from Fairfax county who was in the Army during the world war. Questionnaires are to be sent to every Fairfax county soldier that will show his Army record in full, and it is proposed to file these papers among the archives of Fairfax county, so that the children of these men will in the future be able to obtain the full records of their forbears.

DEBT BILL AMENDED

West Virginia Delegates Favor Sinking Fund to Retire Bonds.

Charleston, W. Va., April 1.—The house of delegates of the West Virginia legislature, in extra session, yesterday afternoon passed the Virginia debt settlement bill by a vote of 66 to 17.

The measure, which passed the senate, at the regular session, provides that West Virginia pay $1,100,000 in cash and $13,400,000 in 3 1-2 per cent bonds, less $1,000,000 in bonds to be held in the West Virginia treasury against certain certificates of indebtedness which have been lost and never have been delivered by Virgina.

The bill, as passed by the house, contained an amendment providing that a sinking fund to retire the bonds and pay the interest each year should be made up from the general revenues of the State otherwise unappropriated, a direct tax to be laid if such revenues are unavailable. The measure went back to the senate this afternoon for consideration of the house amendment. Should the senate fail to accept the house amendment, the bill then would go to conference.

When the bill is finally agreed on by both houses, both having made it effective from passage, the State board of public works will begin at once to carry out its provisions.

GOT WITHIN ARM'S REACH OF WILHELM IN HOLLAND

Knoxville, Tenn, April 1.—It was Col. Luke Lea, commander of the One Hundred and Fourteenth Field Artillery and former United States Senator from Tennessee, who made the attempt to kidnap the former Kaiser from the castle of Count von Bentinck last January, according to statements made by officers and men of his artillery regiment during the parade of the troops at Knoxville.

The officers relating the story say the commander was accompanied by four commissioned and three non-commissioned officers.

They declare the party crossed the Holland border in automobiles from duty in Luxemburg, succeeded in passing the guards at the gates of Count von Bentinck's castle, and entered the mansion where they engaged the secretary of the formr Kaiser.

They were preparing to make a search for Wilhelm when a number of Dutch guards appeared and the American party retired.

As a result of the escapade Colonel Lea was absent from his regiment for a month and narrowly escaped court-martial.

Grand—Dustin Farnum

All the red-blooded film fans will await with interest "Captain Courtesy," which will be shown at the Grand Theatre tomorrow, for its stars Dustin Farnum in some daredevil riding which few people have ever seen. Mr. Farnum is glad of this opportunity to show the public that he is actually a rider; for everybody knows that skilled horsemanship cannot be faked—it has to be done.

When he plunges through a stained-glass window of the old San Fernando Mission to warn the inmates of an intended attack by the Mexicans, his spirited thoroughbred, with dilated nostrils and head aloft, becomes as much an actor as the rider himself

INGOMAR—"The Forbidden Room"

If you are looking for a couple of hours of good entertainment, go see Gladys Brockwell in "The Forbidden Room," which will be shown at the Ingomar Theatre. "The Forbidden Room" is one of those pictures that compel you to forget all your worry and troubles—for a time, at least. It is so constructed that the intense interest is maintained throughout, while the spectator is baffled as to the final outcome until the last scene or two. There are no dull moments, and Miss Brockwell's emotional work is of her best. A Christy Comedy also.

RICHMOND—"The Hand Invisible"

Tensely dramatic is "The Hand Invisible," the new World Picture starring Montagu Love which will be seen tonight at the Richmond Theatre. An unusual story is interestingly developed in this striking photoplay and from start to finish "The Hand Invisible" is vivid, interesting and entertaining. Mr. Love has one of the very best roles of his entire career in this remarkable drama.

"The Hand Invisible" is full of so many surprises and is so dramatically intense and interesting that it grips and holds your attention without a single let up, Pathe News also will be shown.

LIQUOR STOLEN, HE SQUEALS; ARRESTED

Portland, Ore., April 1.—No fear nor fire could stop Marshall Lyons when he found his liquor gone—500 quarters of corn whiskey which he had hauled from far-off Montana into the desert regions of Oregon.

Lyons purchased the whiskey in Montana before that State went dry. He brought it to Portland in a prairie schooner. Here he opened negotiations with a trio of men for its sale, and received $100 down on the deal.

In the dead of night the trio rushed in, flashed "phoney" Federal shields and made off with the wet goods under the rule of confiscation. Suspicious, Lyons went to the Government authorities and found he had not been raided by United States men.

He did find, however, that he was under arrest for bringing liquor into a dry territory.

JAPS IN THE PHILIPPINES

Situation Viewed With Grave Apprehension by Officials

Washington, April 1.—Japanese interests are making determined efforts to exploit the Philippine Islands according to semi-official information from Manila which reached Washington today.

During the last few months the influx of Japanese immigrants into Mandanao and other agricultural districts has assumed extensive proportions, these authoritative reports declare.

The situation is rapidly approaching a critical stage. The natural consequences of such a condition are anticipated with grave apprehension by the officials of the island government.

In the province of Davao alone, it is stated, there are at present more than seven thousand Japanese out of a total population of about 70,000. Supplied with apparently unlimited resources, they are locating on the most desirable lands around the Gulf of Davano.

Japanese interests also are declared to be in the field trying to gain control of mineral lands and large sugar estates in the more thickly populated districts.

TRANSATLANTIC FLIGHT

Expect to Start on Trial Trip Early Next Week.

St. Johns, N. F., April 1,— Mechanics yesterday were busy assembling the Sop-with airplane which arrived Sunday after having been transferred from the steamer Digby at Placentia.

Harry Hawker, who expects to pilot the plane in its dash across the Atlantic, and Commander Mackenzie Grieve, navigator, arrived with the machine. They declared today that with favorable conditions the flight may be attempted early next week.

Approximately three days will be required to assemble the plane, it was stated, and the same time expended in tuning and testing. The flyers are exceedingly optimistic about the successful outcome of their adventure. On several occasions the past few weeks perfect weather conditions between St. Johns and London have existed for the flight.

A LADY'S MAID WOULD BERTIE BE, BUT LOST HIS NERVE AS YOU CAN SEE

Minneapolis, Minn., April 1.—"Bert A. Baldwin, Sioux Falls, lady's maid."

Sounds funny, doesn't it, especially as Bert is a farmers boy, but the police vouch for it. Here's the story; Detectives Joseph Lawrence and David Broderick sighted Bert as he was entering a pawnshop with two heavy suit cases. As Bertie came out in went Joe and Dave.

"What did the young fellow want in here?" they demanded of the pawnbroker.

"Wanted to sell a complete outfit of woman's clothes—cors—well, everything," replied the shopkeeper. That was enough for Joe and Dave. They set sail for Bert and soon corralled him.

Bertie blushed, stammered, and confessed, He had ordered the attire so that he could impersonate a lady's maid. He heard there were lots of jobs for maids Hadn't he a girlish face, and he needed work.

HUSBAND BOSS OF HIS WIFE

Crutchfield Upholds Right of Male to Rule Female.

Richmond, Va., April 1.—Justice Crutchfield ruled Saturday in Police Court that a wife was under the orders of her husband, in the case of Susie Smith and E. Smith, colored, who were arrested at the Main Street Station early yesterday morning by Patrolmen Niesz and Cousins, charged with transporting. Mrs. Smith was dismissed, while her husband was sent to Hustings Court grand jury.

Policemen assert that they found two quarts of whisky sewed in a nether garment which Mrs. Smith was wearing, and that she had three pints of whisky concealed around her waist. Smith was said to have had three hot water bags full of whisky in a black valise which he was carrying. Smith was fined $100 on a charge of carrying a concealed razor. Officers said the prisoner attempted to draw the razor on them.

DIE IN MIDAIR CRASH

Fourth Aviator is Killed in 1,000-Foot Fall at March Field

Pensacola, Fla., April 1.—Three aviators met death and another was seriously injured here yesterday when two airplanes from the naval air station collided in midair at a height of about 500 feet. The dead: Ensign Carl H. Weigl. 1309 Central avenue, Baltimore; Ensign H. A. Robinson, Colwater, Mich., and Ensign Jesse Simpson, of Anderson, who was injured, is expected to recover.

Riverside, Calif., April 1.—Lieut. C. M. Ripperger, of Moline, Ill., was killed yesterday when the airplane in which he was flying over March field, near here, fell 1,000 feet. Cadet Packard, of Bakersfield, who was with him in the machine, was seriously injured.

JOHNSON SURPRISES FANS WITH DRIVES

Augusta, Ga., April 1.—Twice yesterday on Warren Park diamond, Walter Johnson, premier pitcher of the American League, demonstrated his ability in wielding the willow stock when he slammed the horsehide over the center field fence, duplicating a feat that has been accomplished but once before by John Hummel, former member of the Brooklyn Nationals.

Johnson knocked the ball over the fence once in the morning practice game, clearing the bases, and winning the game for the Yannigans and again in the afternoon poled the balls over for a home run and a tie for the Yannigans. Both drives were accomplished in the seventh innings of the respective games. The distance from home plate to center field fence is 125 yards, while the fence itself is at least eight feet in height.

POCKET PHONES NEXT

Head of Marconi Company Foresees Day When They Will be in Wide Use.

London, April, 1.—Godfrey Isaacs says the Marconi company, of which he is managing director, expects to have a commercial service of wireless telephones in operation in New York and London early next year.

The company hopes to make arrangements with New York and London telephone companies so that eventually the British and American wireless phone subscribers will be able to sit at their desks and "Hello, London," or "Hello, New York."

Isaac foresees the day, not far distant, when pocket wireless telephones will be in wide use. A business man's secretary, walking along the street, Isaacs say, will hear a bell ring in his pocket, will put a receiver to his ear and here "his master's voice" give him instructions, probably from an airplane hundreds of miles away.

The Daily Mail says that the British Government probably will compel all commercial airplanes and airships to carry wireless telephone or telegraph equipment. Large machines of both types may be compelled to carry both.
